

WWII Memorial Worksheet

Use the space provided to design your own memorial monument in order to best preserve the memory of WWII soldiers and the sacrifices that they made in order to ensure our freedom. Be prepared to present your design to the class and discuss its meaning afterward.

Explain your design here. Who is the intended audience? Where would it be located? What does it stand for? What should people think about after viewing it? (Use back of page if necessary)